YOUR LIFE IN '54 AT ROCKWOOD

We made friends immediately after our arrival at Rockwood Joint High School. Our hearts will always have a place for the helping hand we received from our instructors and administrators. We will never forget the friendship bestowed upon us by our fellow classmates.

We can well remember the hundreds of times we spent together, and the times we laughed were many. We will never forget the fun we had with one another, nor the unforgettable moments we had with the teachers.

The sportsmanship we learned by our association with the athletic activities engaged within our school was excellent. We always had, and should have, the will to win, but win or lose, we were always good sports. Of this we feel justified in being very proud.

A MESSAGE TO THE MEMBERS OF THE GRADUATING CLASS

You have been partially prepared at the Rockwood Joint High School for the life which now confronts you. Some of you will go to further your formal education in institutions of higher learning, others will face the immediate prospect of earning a livelihood in some vocational pursuit. Whichever path you take, opportunities will present themselves daily whereby you may learn worth while lessons. Be observant, be diligent in your training, learn to love your daily work, thoughtfully consider the rights of others, and try to shoulder more than a fair part of humanity's load. By so doing you will lead a joyful and abundant life replete with personal satisfaction.

Once again we feel that the Rockwood Joint Board of Education has taken steps to make the future of the students who will take our places in the school rooms more educational, comfortable, and enjoyable. Steps were taken to plan the building of a new school for the Rockwood Joint School District, which now includes: Black Township, Casselman Borough, Milford Township, New Centerville Borough, Rockwood Borough; Upper Turkeyfoot Township.

We, the students of R. J. H. S., feel that we should thank the Joint Board of Directors for taking such an interest in our welfare and education. We sincerely hope that their efforts will be rewarded by the construction of the new school.

The advantages of a new school are innumerable and would be an outstanding object of interest in the community. If this new school is constructed we hope that we may say with all sincerity that our educational facilities are second to none in Somerset County.

CLASS HISTORY . . . As We Worked For Graduation

It seems like a century has gone by since 79 of us entered the now-familiar halls of Rockwood Joint High School as freshmen. On that day, August 28, 1950, graduation seemed ages away, but now we are seniors and the time has seemed so short.

Not many weeks had passed before we began to feel at ease in our new surroundings. Especially after the sophomores rolled up our pant legs and colored our faces did we feel at home. We forgave them, though, at the party they held for us that evening.

As our project that year we sold Christmas cards, vanilla and wrapping paper. With the money we made in selling these, we bought the paint for the classrooms in the vocational building.

Only 62 of us returned as sophomores the following year. It was then our turn to initiate the freshmen and this we did with pleasure. The party we held for them that evening was great fun and I know they all forgave us. We sold ice cream and chocolate milk at noontimes that year for our project.

As juniors only 54 of the original 79 students returned again to the well-known corridors of Rockwood Joint High. That year we put on a class play called "The Singing Ghost", which was a great success. We did very well that year by selling hot dogs, peanuts, coffee, and popcorn at basketball games. How excited we were when our class rings arrived. The biggest event of the year, however, was the Junior-Senior Prom, which gave us quite a thrill.

This year we presented the play "Hillbilly Weddin", which was a big hit. Almost before we knew it, it was graduation time. We shall always remember the moments of Baccalaureate, Class Night and Commencement. Happy moments these, but sad too, for we realized we would be parting from our friends and companions of these last four years. The dearly cherished memories of R. J. H. S. will remain with us long after our graduation.

CLASS WILL . . .

Left to Right: Long, Rubright, Sanner.

We, the seniors of Rockwood Joint High School, have called you together on this serious occasion to listen to our last will and testament. With this, we, the senior class of 1954, wish to express our sincere thanks and appreciation to our classmates and faculty members. We hope you will accept and cherish our valuable possessions forever.

We hereby make public, and declare this to be our last will and testament, disposing of our priceless possessions as follows:

ARTICLE I

Section I—To Mr. Gard, supervising principal, we will a senior class which will have perfect attendance and enough credits to graduate. We also leave our sincerest appreciation and gratitude for his thoughtful guidance throughout the year.

Section II—To Mrs. Lamberson we bequeath a home room class who will not tease her about her southern expression, "you all".

Section III—To Mr. Ortman we bequeath the ability to find another forgotten bank account.

Section IV—To Mr. Simala we bequeath a dictionary so that he can learn the meanings of his own vocabulary.

Section V—To Mr. Berkebile we bequeath a typewriter so that he may type his examinations.

Section VI—To Mr. Severn we bequeath a stick of chewing gum to chew during Algebra II class.

Section VII—To Mr. Tipton we bequeath a senior girl's gym class that can play basketball without fighting.

Section VIII—To Mr. Forbes we bequeath an acre of land for the F. F. A. boys to plant their onions.

Section IX—To Mrs. Spangler we bequeath a bushel of apples to replace those that were allegedly taken by the senior play cast.

Section X—To Mrs. Boyer we bequeath a senior health class that will pass all health tests.

ARTICLE II

Section I—To the members of the junior class we bequeath our ability to make money.

Section II—To the members of the sophomore class we bequeath our ability to stay out of trouble at least once a week.

Section III—To the members of the freshman class we bequeath three remaining years of hard work and lots of fun.

Section IV—To the faculty we bequeath a senior class that will behave during class periods.

Section V—To each bus driver we bequeath a sturdy broom with which to sweep the paper off the floor twice each week.

Section VI—To the janitors we bequeath a loyal group of students who will keep out of the dirt while they are sweeping.

ARTICLE III

I, Barry Ansell, will my shortness to Dwight Schrock.

I, Deloris Baker, leave my full, fat figure to anyone who can reduce it.

I, Jim Barron, will to Bill Hay my books, pencils, and tablet and may he have better luck than I.

I, John Bishop, will my luck to Bill Hay to go with the new girls that come to Rockwood.

I, Mardelle Bungard, wish my thinness to anyone who eats as much as I do.

I, Marian Carpenter, will my Home Ec. ability to Beatrice Hoover.

I, Helen Dickey, will my ability to keep quiet in Mr. Simala's studies to Elaine Burkett.

I, Helen Eagle, leave all my typing errors to some lucky junior who doesn't have any.

I, Shirley Fox, leave my love for Driver's Education to Mr. Ortman. He needs it!

I, William Gross, will not will anything to anyone. I'm just willing to leave.

I, Mary Hauger, will my muddy hike across the field to and from the school bus stop to my brother, Johnny.

I, Doris Henry, will my ability to do math problems to someone who can do them better than I can.

I, Elma Henry, will my bashfulness and quietness to anyone who thinks he can use it.

I, Homer Hinzy, Jr., will my appreciation for art to the future art students of R. J. H. S.

I, Joyce Hull, will my love for "Hillbilly" music to Mr. Illar.

I, Floyd Judy, leave my large hands to James Brown.

I, Harold Kaufman, leave my scars from playing basketball on the play ground to anyone who wants them.

I, Ed Klink, will my '39 Chevrolet to anyone who thinks it is worth receiving.

I, Orville Kreger, leave my crew cut to Mr. Simala.

I, Shirley Lamp, will my position in Gym class to anyone who can equal it.

I, Jim Leskey, will my hot-rodding to Mr. Wiley.

I, Mildred Long, will my tall, rangy figure to Fern Lytle.

I, Richard Lyons, will my ability of being late sometimes to anyone who wishes it.

I, Edward Miller, leave my ability to goof-off in study hall to anyone who can get away with it.

I, Martha Miller, leave my ability to quit school, but never did, to my brother Bob.

I, Robert Miller, leave my ability to go with so many girls at one time to anyone who can handle them.

I, Samuel Miller, leave my desire to watch Confluence football games to Mr. Gard.

I, Shirley Nicklow, will my blond hair and blue eyes to anyone who wants them.

I, Carol Panik, do hereby leave my good humor to my dear cousin, Joyce Weiss.

I, Fred Phillippi, leave my seat on the bus to the first one that claims it.

On August 27, 1951, fifty-three freshmen entered Rockwood High School. It seemed quite confusing at first, but after a while we found ourselves among many wonderful friends. We were initiated by the sophomores, and invited to the initiation party held on the same evening. For our project we sold Christmas cards, wrapping paper and vanilla.

Only 36 sophomores returned to welcome the freshmen. The most exciting day of the year was the day we initiated the freshmen. We sold ice cream and chocolate milk at noon and at basketball games.

On September 8, 1953, 34 of us returned to Rockwood Joint High as Juniors. The most exciting day of our Junior year was December 8, 1953, when he received our class rings. As our projects this year, we sold popcorn, homemade candy, and pop at basketball games. We also sold pop during noon hour. On January 28th and 29th we presented a play, "Leave it to the Girls", which was a great success.

SOPHOMORES . . .

On September 3, 1952, we entered the Freshman class with an enrollment of sixty-five members. We were a green, but willing group, as freshmen usually are. We received our initiation from the Sophomores on September 25, 1952, and the same evening we were given a party. As our project we sold Christmas cards.

Returning to school on September 8, 1953, we now had only 45 members. We had long awaited the chance to initiate our Freshmen friends. October 2, 1953, was the day. The same evening of the initiation we gave the Freshmen a Freshman-Sophomore Party. On December 10, 1953 we had a Freshman-Sophomore Dance in the Auditorium. As our project we had a Christmas Ball on December 22, 1953.

FRESHMAN CLASS . . .

Only Three To Go

The class of 1957 entered Rockwood Joint High School, September 8, 1953, with a total enrollment of 72. We will never forget the initiation given us by the Sophomores. We also had a grand time at the party held for us that same night in the gymnasium.

This year we freshmen, together with the Sophomore Class, held an informal ball December 11. This year was the first that the Freshmen and Sophomores have presented such a dance. It proved to be very successful.

The Freshman Class did not follow the usual procedure of selling Christmas cards as a class project. Instead, they decided to present a full two-hour movie, and it was a great success.

This year has been a happy one for us freshmen and we are looking forward to three more happy years at R. J. H. S.

MUSIC . . .

And Its Part In Our School

In many activities during the year the talent of both our band and chorus was displayed. Long will we remember the Christmas concert which we presented in which our chorus sang the best-loved Christmas carols and our band played the bright, well-known Christmas songs. Our band and chorus were especially proud this year to take part in the dedication ceremony of the new Middlecreek-Upper Turkeyfoot Township School.

Our chorus sang for many activities and assemblies, one of which was teacher's institute which was held at Somerset. The really crowning event of the year for the chorus was the All-County-Chorus Festival at Somerset on April 1, for which we practiced many long hours.

Not to be outdone by our chorus' wonderful feats, our band took part in numerous activities also. Our summer band marched in many firemen's parades throughout the county. We provided the music for the first annual Farmer's Fair, held at Centerville last fall. We presented concerts at both the Junior and Senior Class plays, but the high point of this year was the All County-Festival at Berlin on Feb. 22 .

The ROHISTAT, whose governing force is the Quill and Scroll Society, was first established in 1922 under the leadership of Miss Lorine Heyer, English instructor and loyal supporter of the TATler, as the paper was known then.

The aim of this publication is to facilitate and foster the interest of students in all matters pertinent to the school life as existing at Rockwood Joint High School, to facilitate expression for such interest; to promote cooperation between the faculty, the student body, and among the classes; and to perfect a union that shall work for a better and greater Rockwood Joint High School.

The Rohistat has ever held close to its original theme in endeavoring to present a true picture of the school's development. It has left behind in news and pictures, a recorded history of the growth of our scholastic achievements in Rockwood.

ORGANIZATIONS . . .

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS . . . FUTURE FARMERS

The F. H. A. club was quite active throughout the year. At Christmas, boxes of food and clothing were sent to a needy family. A Christmas dinner for the faculty was cooked and served by club members. On December 23 the club held its Christmas party with games, refreshments, and exchanged gifts.

Six club members attended the Farm Show where Margie Snyder and Donna Saylor each won a third prize for their rugs which they exhibited there.

The officers were: president, Beatrice Hoover; vice president, Mary Hauger; secretary, Marian Carpenter; treasurer, Pearl Hechler; reporter, Margie Snyder.

The F. F. A. had regular bi-weekly meetings this year and participated in its usual county F. F. A. activities. The officers were: president, Harry Dickey; vice president, Charles Rose; secretary, Orville Kreger; reporter, Jack Romesberg; chaplain, Paul Clevenger; sentinel, Harry Romesberg.

The club increased its dairy project by purchasing three registered Holstein calves for selected club members. Also, a 35mm Argus camera was purchased for use in the students' supervised project programs.

A highlight of the year was the father-son game supper held at the New Centerville Grange hall.

"Boy, this is good."

"You just can't do them things, Paw."

SENIOR PLAY . . .

Our Version Of "The Hillbilly Weddin"

After giving unsparingly of their time and talent for several weeks, the senior class presented the most hilarious and successful hillbilly comedy to hit our Rockwood stage. "Hillbilly Weddin", a three act comedy, written by Le Roma Rose was presented November 19 and 20, 1953. The untiring efforts and diligent co-operation of all, and the guidance of our director, Mr. Joseph Simala, were well compensated by the public appreciation and packed audience at each performance.

Dave Romesberg, portrayed Paw Belsnickle magnificently in his attempt to marry off his daughters. And Dolly Baker, as Maw, his guiding light, her hair strewn, advertised E. E. Miller's on her flour sack petticoat.

We, the seniors of 1954, wish all the future seniors lots of fun and success in presenting their plays. "Hillbilly Weddin" was full of many hillbilly headaches, which will long be remembered by each member of our class. We, the play cast, will cherish the good times we had during the production of "Hillbilly Weddin."

ORGANIZATIONS . . .

Develop Student Ability And Responsibility

We, the students of Rockwood Joint High School in order to promote closer co-operation and better understanding between the students and their teachers by advocating respect for order and good work, and promoting the best interests of our school . . . do hereby establish this constitution for the Student Council of Rockwood Joint High School.

Yes, as the Constitution of the U. S. is our standard of freedom and government, just so does our Student Council constitution provide for freedom in governing our school. A truly representative body, it follows to the best of its ability a democratic system of government.

The School Boy Patrol for Rockwood Joint Schools consisted of fifteen members. This year some were to serve on busses and others in town. After being chosen they were given a talk by State Policeman, Private Uhl.

The town patrol boy's job is to see that the pupils get to and from school safely.

On the busses his job consists of keeping the the pupils quiet as well as seeing they get across the road safely when they alight from the bus.

The patrol boy's main job is to protect the pupils from accidents while coming to and departing from school.

In an endeavor to produce a victorious and outstanding year, under the capable leadership of Coach Ben Ortman, the Mainliners spent many arduous hours in strenuous workouts on the hardwood. Their efforts failed to materialize to some extent because of the keen competition which they encountered.

Good sportmanship, high morale, and teamwork provided the team with that incentive which inspires good athletes to greater heights. Discouragement and discontent was never disclosed by this team which made its only motives those of victory.

Although the season did not prove too victorious for the R. J. H. S. Mainliners, many vigorous and thrilling episodes were witnessed by the R. J. H. S. fans. Although a definite heartbreaker for Mainliners, one of the most thrilling games of the season was the duel between Meyersdale and Rockwood, in which Rockwood was defeated in a three-minute overtime period.

The Junior varsity coach, Jack Tipton, lead his enthusiastic young athletes through a successful and thrilling season, defeating opponents even when the odds were against them.

An equal share of appreciation and honor may also be bestowed upon the very enthusiastic fans whose presence greatly strengthened the backbone of our sport.

SEASON'S HIGHLIGHTS

- ★ Rockwood went into thrilling overtime with Meyersdale.
- ★ The Mainliners upset Shade Twp. in a thriller.
- ★ Berlin was well pressed to win on our home court.
- ★ Our boys staved off big rally by Northern to win.
- ★ Donn Younkin scored twenty points against Meyersdale.
- ★ Mainliners undaunted by highly rated Somerset team.

David Romesberg — "Dave" — A senior, 5'11", 175 pounds, guard. Captain and steadying influence of the team. Gives it all he has and goes right up to the final whistle.

Edward Miller — "Ed" — A senior, 5'10", 145 pounds, forward. Outstanding defense player usually draws toughest opponent. Combines this with great driving power for those hard-to-get layups.

Robert Miller — "Bob" — A senior, 5'11", 180 pounds, forward. Works very well under the boards, and always comes out with his share of rebounds which are important in winning ball games.

Donn Younkin — "Buckup" — A senior, 5'7", 150 pounds, guard. Speed and a sharp shooting eye make him a threat anywhere on the floor.

Orville Kreger — "Tub" — A senior, 5'11", 155 pounds, center. On offense or defense, he was always battling a much larger opponent but held his own against some of the best around.

Harold Kaufman — "Kaufee" — A senior, 5'8", 130 pounds, guard. Always ready to go in and inject new life into the ball club with his spirit and determination.

Baseball again gained prominence last spring, much to the delight of the players and the students. Our record, though not the best, was two wins out of six games. However, it was great fun and experience for the participants.

Under the leadership of Coaches Ortman and Tipton, the Mainliners got off to a slow start and dropped the first two games to Confluence and Salisbury. Then a splurge of good baseball playing brought victories over Meyersdale and Confluence in the next two games. Despite an excellent display of their ability, our boys dropped a heart-breaker to Meyersdale, 4 to 3, and ended the season with a 7 to 0 loss to Salisbury.

Even though we did not have an all-winning team, we really enjoyed those spring outings to witness the games. Young and old alike were there to cheer when we scored that extra run or got that extra-base hit. It's always thrilling to hear the crack of the bat, watch the ball fly, and hope that it will drop into fair territory while the runner goes streaking for that next base.

With the added experience of last year, and the return of eight lettermen, prospects look good for next year. Win or lose, the team will be well supported by those stalwart fans of Rockwood Joint High School who'll be there cheering until the last out is made.

Following are the scores of last spring's games:

	We	They
Rockwood at Confluence	2	3
Salisbury at Rockwood	3	4
Meyersdale at Rockwood	12	8
Confluence at Rockwood	7	0
Rockwood at Meyersdale	3	4
Rockwood at Salisbury	0	7

SENIOR CLASS PROPHECY . . .

After being employed five years by the Rockwood Daily Times, we were handed our biggest assignment, "Where is the class of 1954?" or "This is your life, Class of 54."

We didn't go far to find Eddie Miller, owner of Miller's White Swan Restaurant in Rockwood, and Shirley Lamp, one of his many well-paid waitresses. Nearby, a building was under construction. As we approached it, we noticed that Floyd Judy was one of the many carpenters working on the building. The building was to belong to Thelma Sanner, the world's most famous beautician. Coming down the road is a taxi, driven by Helen Dickey, co-owner of Dixie's Taxi Service. In the taxi we saw one of our classmates, a distinguished sales woman, Betty Hostetler.

After leaving Rockwood, we visited the fast-growing community of Paddytown and we found Richard Lyons. While talking with him, he told us that Jim Leskey, the county sheriff, recently captured one of the county's ten most wanted men. We learned also that Harry Schrock owned the greatest mink raising farm in the world.

Feeling a little tired, we spent a pleasant evening at home watching television. The first program we saw was an exciting basketball game between Harvard and Yale. Coming down the floor was the latest publicized hero, Dave Romesberg. Time out was called by the referee, Barry Ansell. The next program was Wilken's E. Z. Credit Time starring Joyce Hull and Shirley Rubright, the world's foremost singers of hillbilly music.

While completing a business transaction with the Carnegie Steel Corporation in Pittsburgh, we were greeted at the firm's main office where we saw Mardelle Bungard, the company's private secretary. While talking to the president, Donn Younkin, he told us that his best salesman was Jim Barron. This didn't surprise us, because Jim always was the best salesman of our class.

Upon returning to Rockwood, we visited the new high school. We found Carol Panik teaching history. Acting as principal was Fred Schrock, well known as a former college professor. Also visiting school on this day was the County Superintendent of Schools, Sam Miller. Harry Dickey was discovered driving one of Rockwood's thirty school busses. We were glad to learn Martha Miller had a position as the school clerk, and Virginia Schrock was the hard-working secretary.

Relaxing after our visit at the school, we settled down to read the evening paper. One of the headlines read "Elma Henry, Missionary to India, Arrives at La Guardia Airport Today." Arriving with her was the United States Ambassador to India, Jim Pritts.

The best selling book of the day, "Hypochondriac at Large" was given a column in the book reviews. The author, Wilma Pletcher, was now a millionaire.

After a hard day's work, we decided to go to a movie. On our way, we were involved in a car accident and were taken to the Rockview Hospital for a checkup. We were examined by Harold Kaufman, assisted by Doris Henry, a reliable nurse. The hospital's dietician, Marion Carpenter, treated us to a delicious steak dinner.

In our country's armed forces was Tub Kregger, now a commander at one of our air force bases in Madrid, Spain. Also serving our country we found Helen Eagle in the W.A.F. Galen Stahl was just recently promoted to a five-star general in the United States Army.

As a friend's birthday was drawing near, we decided to go shopping in Johnstown. We saw an original display in the window of Glosser's Department Store and entered, wishing to buy a gift for our friend. While waiting for the elevator, we heard a familiar voice over the Public Address system. It was the voice of Lawrence Colegrove, manager of the store. Stepping into the elevator, we immediately recognized the elevator operator as none other than our former classmate, Shirley Fox. We found the item we were searching for and made a fast purchase. We immediately left the store and returned home.

The next evening we were invited to dinner at the home of Mrs. Rex Allan, the former Mildred Long. The main course consisted of stuffed turkey and trimmings. After dinner Mrs. Allan announced that they were planning to take their family on a trip to Europe. The transportation was going to be a new-built atomic plane, which would travel approximately ten-hundred miles per hour. She told us that the pilot would be Bill Gross, who became famous by completing the first trip to the moon.

After returning home from our delicious meal, we were met at our door by an old classmate, Mary Hauger, a well-known stylist. After chatting with her, she informed us that she had designed a dress for the President's wife, and was on her way to her home in Hollywood. We asked her if she knew anything about Robert Miller, and she told us that he was a new star under the name of Rock Wood. Rock was employed by Paramount Studios. We had read much about Rock, never dreaming that it was Bob Miller.

On the following day, we remembered that we had another assignment to do. This was to interview the winner of the Nobel Peace Prize, Homer Hinzy. Homer won the prize for his modernistic painting of the Pentagon.

While driving back to the office, after completing our interview with Homer, we heard a news flash over the television set in the back seat of our new-model Tele-Matic automobile. The bulletin surprised us because it seemed almost fantastic. A new scientific way of making rain will be used in future years in case of drought. The research was under the supervision of Merle Spangler at the World's International Scientific Observatory.

We also heard that a new car would be put on the market for the first time. It was invented by Edward Klink. The car was jet propelled with an atomic engine. To purchase the car would cost one a fortune as it was priced at one million dollars.

This news-broadcast attracted our attention so much that we became interested in knowing who the news commentator was. His voice brought to our minds memories of our high school days. Still another news headline was an expedition to the Amazon Basin. The head of the expedition was John Bishop. The explorers discovered a new mineral called Soilryte, which will be the answer to a farmer's dream. The new mineral will make the western deserts, which are now useless, into a cattle-grazing paradise. The commentator announced his identity as Miles Thomas. This news was sponsored by "Sure Curl", a shampoo to make your hair naturally curly with one washing.

We stopped at a quaint looking hamburger stand for coffee and doughnuts. Sitting on the bench next to us was Fred Phillippi, his lovely wife, and their two noisy children. We didn't believe our eyes, but it was Fred, now a foreman for Jones and Lockman steel mill in Florida. He came home to visit his folks for a holiday. Fred informed us that Junior Snyder was an employee on Suthru Godfrey V farm in Virginia.

We felt relieved to know where all our classmates were. We were glad to find all of them leading an interesting life. Returning to our office we, Nancy Snyder and Dolly Baker, settled down to type the information we had gathered about the class of 54.
